

Combinations with Rat and Coffin

In this chapter we're going to approach a tricky field of interpretation: the so called negative or sickness cards.

No 8 Coffin as well as the card no 23 Rat are indicators for negative feelings, negative incidents or even sickness of some kind.

Depending on the combination of the cards you can even read the type of sickness or upcoming event.

But as it is a dangerous business to get out in the open with such information you have to be really careful dealing with customers in this field.

Please don't ever try to give a specified answer to such questions as 'Will I get cancer?' You are no physician and therefore you shouldn't even attempt to engage in this field.

You should however try to warn you customer that some kind of health problem is bothering them. But make sure you tell them to visit a proper doctor for further medical diagnosis.

Another piece of advice:

Please make sure you are very firm in this kind of interpretation before you attempt to tell your customers anything about this kind of health problems. It is your responsibility to warn your customers but you can cause a lot of personal trouble by involuntarily scaring a customer with a sickness that they might not have just because you misinterpreted the tableau.

Sicknesses are indicated by the following cards:

no 8 Coffin and no 23 Rat .

The cards can appear in horizontal, vertical and vertical lines of Interpretation. They need only be connected to each other in some way.

no 1 Rider
no 8 Coffin

Fear of contact Sore throat

no 2 Clover
no 8 Coffin

Bronch

Loneliness
Nerves

.....

Ringcombinations

If you want to know more about relationships you will have to watch out for combinations with the card no 25 Ring.

But remember just like the previous combinations the cards do not necessarily touch – they just have to be in one line of interpretation.

no 36 Cross
no 25 Ring

New marriage

no 25 Ring
no 17 Stork
no 10 Scythe

Change, followed by divorce.

no 25 Ring
no 16 Stars
no 23 Rat

You will suffer in your marriage, until you have lost your fear of separating (divorce).

no 25 Ring
no 8 Coffin

Your marriage is making you ill

but:

no 25 Ring
no 8 Coffin

Important: should no 8 be the last card in your line of interpretation, this marriage will last until death parts you!

Heart Combinations

If you wish to find out more about the topic of love and it' aspects you combinations will involve the card no 24 Heart.

no 23 Rat

no 27 Letter no 34 Fish
no 23 Rat

.....

Other important combinations

In my long working experience I found that some combinations can be rather specific and very precise. These combinations should be kept in mind!

no 17 Stork
no 33 Key no 11 Rod
no 8 Coffin

Drive carefully!

no 11 Rod
no 19 Tower no 20 Park
no 23 Rat

Caution! You might end up in prison!

What are Combinations?

And how can I spot them in the Grand Tableau?

Combinations are constellations of two to four cards which carry a certain meaning. In your tableau these cards can either be situated side by side but there may also be a few cards lying in between.

Please do not forget!.....

Example combinations

Combination 1

My interpretation.....

Interpreting the future: no 25 Ring divorce; yes or no?

picture no 5

			no 25 Ring	no 2 Clover	no 12 Birds	no 22 Paths	no 10 Scythe
			no 16 Stars
			no 23 Rat

As this is a very important topic, allow me to repeat the following:

What can I say about a divorce

Please mind the combinations.

You will find out what is going on a lot faster, if you know your combinations well.

Once you have laid your Grand Tableau look out for your topic.

In this example:

The question is: ‘divorce yes or no?’

First of all look at the horizontal line of interpretation, followed by a look at the vertical and diagonal ones.

Please pay good attention to all lines of interpretation, i.e. the divorce should be seen two or three times in your tableau.

Once you have done that, check the tableau for combinations.

This way you can make a statement straight away.

Remember that there may sometimes be no combinations at all!

At the beginning let us stick to the horizontal and vertical lines of interpretation seen in picture no 5.

Please look at the line of interpretation: future: no 25 Ring

Horizontal:

Ring + Clover	happiness
Birds	small troubles or sadness
Paths	separate or separation
Scythe	end

So:

Ring + Scythe (comb.) divorce in the horizontal line.

Vertical:

Ring + Rat	loss (comb.)
Stars + Rat	suffering, depression (comb.)

So:

Ring + Stars + Rat loss of the marriage linked to suffering in the vertical line.

Remember to take your time, when reading the cards.

It is worth it.

I might repeat myself a couple of times in this chapter, but this is due to the fact that certain things cannot be repeated too often.

Divorce is a subject that must be handled with great care!

for reading the cards also involves a great deal of responsibility

As combinations are of such great importance, I will give you some more examples .

.....

Let us now take the matter one step further:

This will enable you to read a good deal more in your tableau. The ways of reading described as follows are just extensions to the ways you already know.

They should be applied when the statements or information taken from your Grand Tableau are not sufficient for you.

In the my Basic Course to Reading the Cards Part four, we have talked about the method of finding information in a direction not as closely connected as usual in the vertical or horizontal line of interpretation.

This information which does not appear in direct order, is never more than a mere extension to the information which can be taken from the horizontal and vertical lines.

I.e.:

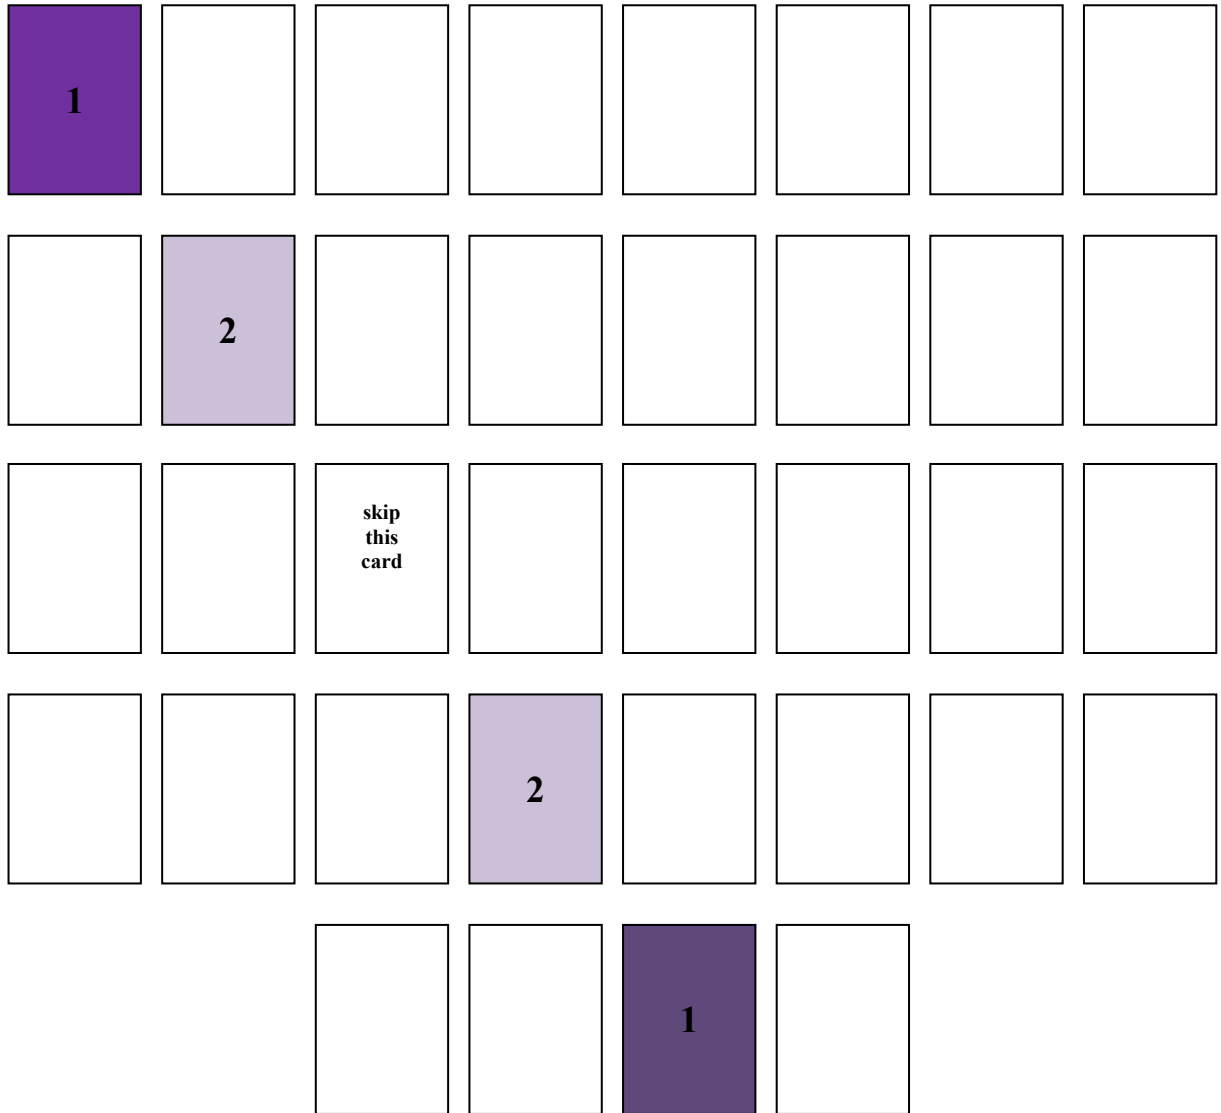

You may find some additional information from your tableau.

This should only be done should the existing information not be satisfactory and only if the additional interpretation matches the one you already have.

This is all about your intuition and tact.

Time Cards

Time cards indicate a limited length or period of time.
Before we start with the exercises on the Time Cards, I would like to explain how I got to the statements made by the individual cards.

Exercises on the Time Cards

As mentioned above, there are no strict rules on how to interpret, the Time Cards.

In the examples below I can merely explain my personal experience with certain cards.

Your own intuition will most probably allow some other, different interpretations as well.

These things all depend on your experience.

Always listen to your inner voice.

By the way:

I only read Time Cards horizontally. Never in vertical or diagonal direction.

Here's your first example:

no 2 Clover Leaf soon, 2 hours, 2 days, 2 weeks

The cards displayed are as follows:

no 4 House + no 27 Letter + no 2 Clover Leaf

My interpretation

There will soon be a positive message at home.

or alternatively:

There will be a positive message at home in no later than two weeks.

As you can see, there is more than one way to involve the Time Card in your interpretation.

The meanings of the Future Cards

no 5 Tree

...will come or be for certain no 26 Book

...is not yet ready
...will come but we cannot say when

no 35 Anchor

...will come in about two years

no 36 Cross

...will come at some time in the future

The interpretations of the various Future Cards in connection should be practised with the help of the following examples.
